

IRS JOBS

Plantation, West Palm Beach, Miami, Deerfield Beach, Fort Myers, and others

The Internal Revenue Service is hiring hundreds of Revenue Agents across the country. We expect to hire over two dozen agents in our Plantation and West Palm Beach offices alone! Come work for one of the largest financial organizations in the world and enjoy the excellent benefits of federal employment.

Anticipated start working date: September of 2009

There are currently 3 Florida announcements for Internal Revenue Agents on usajobs (along with many other positions). Please go to www.usajobs.gov and enter the following announcement numbers in the “Keyword Search” field:

keyword search: 09PH3-SBE0254-512-5T11

keyword search: 09PH2-CHE415-0512-12/13-H

keyword search: 09PH2-CHX468-51212/13-FXP

You may also search by “Internal Revenue Agent” to view them. These announcements are open until 2010, but to be considered for September 2009, you need to apply right away. Each announcement will have specific requirements, so read them carefully. Also, ensure you keep a hardcopy of each announcement for which you apply, as they contain important information.

To view all IRS announcements please go to the IRS page on usajobs:

<http://jobsearch.usajobs.opm.gov/a9trirs.asp>

You may wish to bookmark the link above and visit the site frequently to view new job postings. Please DO NOT search by locality on this website as many positions are listed as “US-Throughout the Nation”. Instead, view all open positions and then narrow them down by job title. I encourage you to apply for as many positions as you wish to be considered for. Good Luck!