

Commander Michael Calderin was appointed as a board member of the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Broward County in January 2009, and serves as our Governmental and Community Relations Liaison. Commander Calderin has served at the Broward Sheriff's Office since 2000, and currently oversees the Crime Stoppers Division and other community related initiatives. Commander Calderin co hosts the weekly radio show "All Points Bulletin" with Broward Sheriff Lamberti. Commander Calderin earned a master's degree in Organizational Management from the University of Phoenix, and a bachelor's degree in Community/Human services from the State University of New York, Empire State College. Commander Calderin is a Certified Mental Health Professional, Certified Addictions Professional, and Credentialed Victim Services Professional.

Commander Calderin is a founding member of the Broward County Human Trafficking Workgroup. Commander Calderin is also a member of the following community based organizations: National Organization for Victim Assistance, Florida Certification Board, Fraternal Order of Police, International Police Association, Association of Retired Hispanic Police, and the Latino Officers Association of Florida. Commander Calderin was appointed in October 2008 to the board of directors of the Florida Association of Crime Stoppers, where he continues to serve, and is the Florida Administrator/Chaplain for the National Police Defense Foundation. Commander Calderin is also the Administrator/Senior Chaplain for Saint Jude Counseling Ministries.

Commander Calderin, a native New Yorker, is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Phoenix, and resides in Broward County with his wife and two children.

