

Liza E. Erazo
Director of Special Events

Born and raised in Queens, New York by Puerto Rican parents, Liza E. Erazo has over 20 years experience in the Home Health Industry. Upon her relocation to Florida eleven years ago to accept a promotion within her organization, Coram Healthcare she continued her professional growth and education. Over the years she has advanced in the field by holding positions such as Office Manager, Insurance Specialist, Intake Supervisor, JCAHO Compliance Coordinator, Transplant Coordinator and Case Manager Liaison. Currently she is the Marketing/Provider Relations Representative for Atenda Healthcare Solutions in Davie, Florida.

Driven by her belief that you can accomplish whatever you set your mind on, Liza obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice. She steadfastly balanced her career and continued her education while raising two children.

Eager to serve her Latino community she has various memberships and affiliations. These include serving on the planning committee for the Puerto Rican Day Parade in New York City, Case Management Society of America/Florida Chapter, PR/Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Women's Power Caucus Advisory Board and the Florida Metropolitan University Advisory Board.

Liza's zest for living life to the fullest and infectious enthusiasm is appreciated by all those who know her. As she continues to serve her community, new challenges are always welcome. She is a firm believer in continuing her professional and personal growth as she continuous to evolve.
